

KÁROLI FORUM MMXXIV

The Protestant Worldview – Reforms and Challenges

JOINT DECLARATION

Gathered in Subotica (Serbia) on June 8, 2024, the participants of the Second International Károli Forum, in consideration of the studies presented at the conference, have accordingly formulated their conclusions as follows:

1. The complexity of modern societies calls for mutual respect and tolerance.
2. Social advancement inter alia includes creativity based on intellectual curiosity and unbiased acceptance of empirically proven facts. Special attention must be given to the needs of the young in their pursuit of knowledge and self-determination.
3. Cultural, ethnic, religious, worldview differences are humanity's indisputable advantage.
